He moved to the Pacific, where he crewed on a variety of yachts. Certified as a PADI Dive Instructor, he was able to guide clients on undersea tours. He has sailed thousands of miles during the course of his yachting career and earned his international commercial Skipper's ticket in Cape Town, South Africa in 2006. He has since worked as a captain in the Mediterranean and in the Caribbean.

An accomplished cook, Francesco is your head chef on OMBRE BLU, following in the tradition of his two sisters, who are successful restaurateurs in the Veneto region. Like everyone in his family, he is passionate about good food.

After four years of handling player contracts, sponsorships, publicity and special events, she decided on a change of pace and accepted an offer to crew on an ex-Sydney-to-Hobart racing yacht. She earned her first international skipper's ticket in Cape Town, South Africa in 2006.

After meeting & marrying Francesco Melissa moved to Italy, where she has become fluent in the language and has developed a deeper understanding of its culture and people.
